Overlapping Course List
Last updated: 04-25-17

The INI discourages students from enrolling in courses that have overlapping content to the extent that students will not receive credit toward degree requirements for redundant courses; however, every course taken will be factored into the student’s cumulative GPA. Specifically, the INI sets the following list of exclusions:

The following security courses are considered to be overlapping:
- 08-761 Information Security and Privacy
- 14-741 Introduction to Information Security
- 15-349 Introduction to Computer and Network Security
- 15-487/18-487 Introduction to Computer and Network Security and Applied Cryptography
- 18-630 Introduction to Security and Policy

- 10-601: Introduction to Machine Learning
- 10-701: Introduction to Machine Learning (PhD)
- Or, any of their cross-listed versions

The above list is not exhaustive. It is the responsibility of the student to avoid taking courses with topics that overlap with any other courses on their schedule, or else risk losing credit for the redundant course(s). In situations where courses are considered to be overlapping with INI or ECE courses, we recommend that students take the INI or ECE course. If a student has doubts over which courses are considered overlapping, the student should speak with his/her academic advisor.
